

DAILY EVENING BULLETIN.

FRIDAY EVENING, DEC. 1, 1882.

ROSSER & McCARTHY,
PUBLISHERS AND PROPRIETORS.

THE spare ribs and the tenderloins
And juicy sausage meat,
Are now among the goodly things
That people have to eat.
And every face now wears a look
That plainly seems to tell,
A first class gobble's coming on
When rings the dinner bell.

Thomas O'Neal, of Augusta, died in Wyoming Territory last week.

SEVERAL interesting society events are promised in Maysville next month.

SOME of the members of the Emmet Rifles were out target shooting yesterday.

SPARE-RIBS, tenderloins, etc., from the slaughter house may be had at the grocery stores.

THE Holman Opera Company travels with its own orchestra. It numbers eight pieces.

THE Emmet Rifles were paid for their services at Catlettsburg last night. Capt. Fitzgerald was the paymaster.

HANSON P. DILTZ's new novel, which is to appear from the Philadelphia press before the holidays, is entitled "The Duchess Undine, or, Slain by a Woman's Lie."

MR. PHILIP COOPER, who lives near Aberdeen, has sent to this office a double ear of white corn, which he found in his crop this season. It is quite a curiosity.

A NEGRO girl named Minerva Trumbo was fatally burned a few days ago at the residence of J. T. Johnson, at Johnson's Junction. Her clothing caught fire from a grate.

HOOVER STIVERS, who recently killed Burt Scully, at Paris, has been jailed. He was released on $5,000, bonds but the papers raised such a row about it that the order admitting him to bail was withdrawn.

BOURBON NEWS: S. P. Hopkins, a traveling agent from Nicholas County, went to sleep in a buggy, while drunk, in the Johnson House livery stable and was robbed of $350 in money and a check on the Exchange Bank of Sharpsburg, for $200.

JOHN JONES, colored, was severely cut in the neck at Dover, on Tuesday evening, by a man of the name of True. After Jones had been cut he turned upon True and gave him a severe beating. The affair occurred in Kline's barroom, where the two were picking turkeys. Jones left Dover immediately after the affair occurred and is supposed to have gone to Cincinnati.

Holiday Edition.

During the week preceeding Christmas the DAILY BULLETIN will be enlarged to a five column paper and an edition of one thousand copies printed and circulated each day in this city, Chester, Aberdeen and in the other towns adjacent to Maysville. We shall thus be enabled to offer the business men of the city who wish to advertise their holiday goods, the best and at the same time the cheapest medium for doing so. Our patrons may rely upon having their favors printed in six thousand papers during the week, all of which will be circulated where they will be of the most benefit to advertisers. Call and ascertain our rates. Contracts should be made immediately as our space will be limited.

The Holman Opera Company.

Says the Utica (N. Y.) Daily Observer of September 28th:

"The Holman Opera Company sang 'Bells of Corneville' at the City Opera House last night in a manner worthy a crowded house. The acting of Sallie Holman as Serpolette was spirited and pleasing. Unfortunately a cold contracted in Troy, and from which she has not entirely recovered, interferes somewhat with the sweetness of her voice, which, however, shows improvement each night. Wallace Macreary, who last evening took the part of Grenichex, is improving himself worthy the favor of Uticans. Of splendid physique and pleasing stage presence, he has a remarkably full and strong, yet smooth and musical tenor voice which he uses with fine expression. He well merited the hearty encores given him last evening. The difficult part of Gaspard was very creditably assumed by J. H. O'Connor. The minor parts were well taken, the choruses good and the opera moved smoothly. This evening the comic French opera Girofle-Girofla, which was last given in Utica by Alice Oates several years ago, will be presented. The Holman company have proved themselves worthy of patronage, and the cosy little opera house in the City Hall building should be packed to-night."

PERSONALS.

Points About People Here and Elsewhere.

Capt. Val P. Collins and family are in the city.

Mr. T. J. Glenn, of Carlisle, is in Maysville to-day.

Miss Sudie R. McCarty, of Augusta, is visiting the family of Mr. M. C. Russell,

George S. Fleming, of Fleming county, is so ill, all hope of his recovery has been given up.

The Lecture.

Dr. Cottrell is said to combine in his lectures strong intellectuality with much humor. And this with the declaration of the "Nashville World" that the mantle of J. C. Calhoun that has fallen to him is enough to settle the matter as to the audience what will greet him. No lover of a literary treat will be absent.

COUNTY POINTS.

MILLWOOD.

Miss Mollie Chandler is visiting friends at Orangeburg.

Edward Y. Hawley, spent Saturday and Sunday in this vicinity.

Miss Alice Bateman is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Ora Bateman.

Elder E. W. Harkins preaches at Mill Creek, Sunday morning and night.

James Cord delivered to Northcott, on Tuesday eighty-five turkeys.

Mrs. Lizzie Harrison, of Tollesburg spent a few days this week with her daughter Mrs. J. Cord.

Misses Addie and Eva Hord visited relatives in Flemingsburg last week.

I. B. Fields was delivering his wheat this and last week.

MT. OLIVET.

Prof. Wm. Chandler having relinquished the school room formerly occupied by Prof. Norris, is engaged teaching the select school in our town, the current term. Although inexperienced in the art of pedagogies, from what we can learn from patrons and pupils this school ranks among the best ever taught at this place.

Owing probably to an insufficiency of funds to employ an assistant, Mrs. Kate Zoller, formerly principal has entire control over the public schools this session. The pupils of these schools are anxiously anticipating the pleasures and things in store for them on Thanksgiving day, the great national holiday.

As the taxes collected last summer are being refunded and the fines assessed by the police judge since last April, have practically amounted to almost nothing. The charge preferred by one of your Correspondents against the town trustees here for remission of duty would seem groundless as it requires some funds to carry on a government of any body politic or public corporation.

Col. Matt Cooper, of Chicago, an elegant temperance orator addressed a respectable and attentive audience at the court house, on Monday night last, on the enormous evils of intemperance. Having been a hard drinker for a number of years and snatched from a drunkard's grave by signing the Murphy pledge he speaks from experience, on this subject that is now claiming the thoughtful attention of the American people. The lectures will continue during the remainder of the week.

THREE hundred and three schoolhouses have been built in Indiana during the present year, at a total cost of $35,540.

John Flannagan is the hardest hitter among the workmen in the Louisville iron mills, and he domineers at will over his fellows. He had successfully bullied a crowd of them as they lounged in the streets in the evening, and was weary of that sport, when Lizzie Kirk came along. She was a pretty girl, and Flannagan told her so, but rounded the compliment with an insulting epithet. Lizzie soon returned with a horsewhip, and spectators saw the pugilist get his first thrashing.

AUGUST SCHAEFFER,
Superintendent.

Determined to Check the Mighty Tide.

For ten years or more there has been a great rush of people to Cincinnati and other points for buggies and carriage work in general, carrying with them thousands of dollars which legitimately belong to the city of Maysville. In order to prevent this state of affairs—being somewhat encouraged by the sale of one hundred and forty this year, we have ordered (and have now under course of construction) one hundred vehicles from the best manufacturers of the day, to be delivered in time for our grand spring opening, of which, date and dinner will be announced in due time. As the above line of business is to be a future specialty with us we shall endeavor to obviate all the objectionable features encouraged heretofore, thus throwing upon this market a class of work that shall not be excelled in quality or price by any house in the west.

Look out for extraordinary bargains during the next thirty days in Farm Wagons and Buggies, for they must be sold before the first of January. All are invited to call, see, buy and get a bargain.
